

War Eagle Seminar

September 13-17, 2010

Choose from these 13 instructors

Chip Carving: Darian Bebout of Andover, KS. loves solving student problems and sharing his knowledge of chip carving. Darian will start you out with practice boards to learn the Swiss and old world style carving followed by projects of the students choosing. Projects include: kaleidoscopes, crosses, coaster sets, egg-o-scopes and Christmas ornaments.

Additional costs: $5.00-$100.00

Phone: 316-733-1778

Scrimshaw: Paula Bebout will take you through the art of Scrimshaw by starting you out with a practice piece then on to 4 other surfaces.

Additional costs: $25.00 for Scrimshaw kit. Kit includes tools, 1 practice piece and 4 other surfaces.

Caricature: Steve Brown hails from Kentucky and will teach his simple approach to caricature carving. Come prepared to learn facial expression, hand detail and clothing wrinkles. Choose from over 30 different roughouts, including: chain pull figures, pen figures, kaleidoscopes, indians, santas, cowboys etc. Steve is the author of Carving Pen Figures and Carving Figural Kaleidoscopes.

Additional costs: $3.00-$65.00

Visit his web site: www.sbrownwoodcarving.com

Realistic Faces: Ken Carter of Grady, AL. has worked as assistant instructor with Jeff Phares. Ken's class is set for the beginner/ intermediate carver who wants to learn how to create the human face in a more realistic form.

Additional costs: $25.00-$35.00

Phone: 334-584-7130

Visit his web site: www.KenCarterWoodcarving.com

Beginner woodcarving with Marvin Daniels of Indiana. Marvin a caricature carver will discuss safety tips, the different types of carving tools used and basic sharpening. Then Marvin will take you step by step in carving a face study stick (caricature). After completing the study stick, you may choose one of Marvin's many roughouts to complete in class. Come ready to learn, to hear a lot jokes and to just have a good time.

Additional costs: $10.00-$25.00

Phone: 812-985-5492

Visit his web site: www.crvnmrvn.com

Bark carving: Tony Erickson of Seneca, SC. will instruct his students in carving a in- the- round bark dwelling. Tony encourages his students to use their imagination to create new and original pieces. No patterns are used, each dwelling will be designed per what the bark gives you. Lighting the dwelling will be discussed.

Additional costs: $15.00-$40.00

Phone: 352-665-7679

General woodcarving: Adina Denton Huckins has carved for over 20 years and feels that good design is the cornerstone of good sculpture. Her teaching style focuses on helping the student to think about design, correct anatomy and learning. Adina will help you with the human face (male or female) full figure (male or female) or a variety of animal subjects. Here is your chance to work on a design you've been thinking about. You must call Adina well before class so she can prepare your project.

Additional costs: $15.00-$40.00

Realistic Portraits: Steve Oliver of Evansville, IN. will take your digital photo of a friend or relative of your choice and make a cutout. Steve will then lead through the carving and finishing of your portrait. Steve has been carving portraits the past 8 years and has studied with Ivan Whilock and Ian Norbury. You will need to get in touch with Steve as soon as possible so he can make your cutout.

Additional costs: $15.00-$25.00

Visit his web site: www.olivercarvings.com

Santa carving with Adair Rucker. Adair started woodcarving over 20 years ago and has been carving Santas for the past 10 years. Adair will help students carve several Santas starting with a 7" tall Santa roughout. Students will have a choice of many different styles of Santas. If time permits, students will carve an ornament and a Old World Santa from a 2" stick.

Additional costs: $18.00-$22.00

E-mail: pattyadair@grandecom.net

Woodburning: Patty Rucker of Lockhart, TX. specializes in a soft shading style of wood burning that looks like a photograph, however, encourages her students to burn in any style they prefer. Patty will demonstrate a variety of wood burning styles and will also demonstrate adding color to the project. Patterns will be provided but you may bring any photos of (pets, family , friends, landscapes etc.) to wood burn.

Additional costs: $35.00

Phone: 512-376-6624

E-mail: pattyadair@grandecom.net

Caricature: Wayne Shinlever comes to us from Knoxville, TN. to teach his style of caricature carving. He has taught seminars throughout the Eastern U.S. since 1998. Wayne has won top honors at the CCA competition and the National Santa competition. He will even show his tricks that will make carving simpler and more enjoyable.

Additional costs: $10.00-$37.00

Phone 865-281-9303

Visit his web site: www.carvingsbywayne.com

Realistic Animal: Jim Wilsford of Lenoir City, TN has taught realistic animal carving for more than 25 years and comes to War Eagle to teach a Howling Wolf. Jim will show woodburning texture and will discuss proportions and bone structure. Time permitting habitats will be made. Come learn from one of the best. This is a power class.

Additional costs: $25.00

Phone: 865-816-0563

Bird Carving: Charles Wolfe of Springdale, AR. will instruct you in carving a full size Kestrel. Charles will also instruct you in burning of the feathers, painting and building of the habitat. Paints will be furnished. This is a power class.

Additional costs: $35.00-$48.00

Phone: 479-756-6302

E-mail: carverwolfe@sbcglobal.net

Carving Supplies: The Woodchip Shop of Des Moines, IA will be there to supply you with your carving needs. Tim Rundall-owner will also be sharpening tools.

Visit his web site: www.woodchipshop.com

Cost for the seminar is $175.00 with $25.00 of this cost used as a non-refundable processing fee.

Please fill out, sign and make check payable to Steve Brown.

Mail to: Steve Brown, 1805 Forest Acres Loop, Madisonville, KY. 42431

A confirmation letter will be sent with a tentative weeks schedule, phone numbers for motels, maps and campground information.

-----Cut Here-----

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

e-mail _____

 I also understand that the staff of the War Eagle Seminar 2010 or the facility will not be held liable for any injury or theft that may occur during the course of the War Eagle Seminar 2010.

Signature _____ Date _____

Please make your first, second and third choice of instructors below. Remember, as classes fill we will move you to your next choice.

First _____

Second _____

Third _____

2010 War Eagle Seminar

Located at the HIDE-A-Way Campground
East of Rogers, Arkansas on Hwy. 303
Come and experience the NEW WAR EAGLE
September 13-17, 2010
13 Nationally known instructors to choose from.

WAR EAGLE
Is the place to be Sept. 13-17, 2010